Bruce BOCHY to manage the French National Baseball Team

Winner of three World Series as a Manager with the San Francisco Giants, the native of Landes de Bussac in France will lead Les Bleus in their quest for a place at the 2021 World Baseball Classic.

Next year's World Baseball Classic Qualifier date and location will be announced by Major League Baseball in the coming weeks.

Didier SEMINET, FFBS President: "We are proud to name Bruce Bochy as manager of the French National Baseball Team for the 2020 World Baseball Classic Qualifier. Born in Landes de Bussac, Bruce has a special connection to France. We are deeply honored and thrilled that he is willing to take this opportunity to help the development of French Baseball.

The game has been consistently growing over the last 10 years in France and we think Bruce can help the French National Baseball Team enter a new dimension by qualifying for the World Baseball Classic."

Bruce BOCHY: "I've been thinking a while about what's next in my life after managing the Giants. I want to stay involved and give back to Baseball. Managing France is a perfect example of how I can help develop the game. I was born in France, my son is eligible play, my brother will help me in the dugout so the Bochy's will be on deck to give a boost to French Baseball.

I want to thank President Seminet for giving me the opportunity to manage Team France at the 2020 World Baseball Classic Qualifier. Allez les Bleus !"
